Chesapeake Bay Technician

Base Salary: $35,743.00- $50,040.00

Union County Conservation District is accepting applications for the position of Chesapeake Bay Technician, serving Union County and its agricultural community. The position assists the farm community with the development and implementation of agricultural regulatory compliance plans through technical assistance, implementation, inspections and grants.

The position implements Ag best management practices (BMPs) to solve environmental problems related to nutrient management and water quality on agricultural operations. It does this through: technical assistance, outreach, education, 25 farm inspections per year to verify manure management & Ag Erosion & Sedimentation plans, the development of plans and marketing of project funding programs to landowners.

Knowledge of agricultural practices, soils, hydrology, land use, and the use of technology (computers, smartphones, ArcGIS) is required for this position. Education can be substituted with work experience and vocational training or a Bachelor's Degree in Agronomy, Agriculture, Natural Sciences, Environmental Resources Management, Environmental Science, Agricultural Engineering, or other related environmental fields.

Certification or experience in Nutrient Management planning or review and conservation planning are highly recommended and may be required to obtain/maintain during employment.

The preferred candidate will demonstrate excellent communication and reasoning skills combined with the ability to develop a rapport to promote and market agricultural assistance within a diverse farm community.

The position requires an immediate fill and is located in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania.

A full job description and application can be obtained at www.unioncountypa.org or picked up at the HR Office located at 155 N 15th Street, Lewisburg, PA 17837.

Resumes and cover letters will be accepted at the HR Office, 155 N 15th Street, Lewisburg, PA 17837 no later than September 18, 2020 by 4:00 PM.

Union County is an EEO Employer.
